

About Us

Who We Are

AVANTE & SCHMIDT is a new-generation boutique law firm formed by seasoned, result-oriented lawyers. We are a cross-breed between the analytical and the proactive, and our lawyers possess the patience, fortitude and dynamism to help all our clients thrive in the globalized and complex world we live in today.

As highly confident and articulate team-players, we have an unrelenting desire to solve our clients' legal problems, and our refreshing blend of integrity, energy and intellect will be useful to any client that values creativity and innovation as critical components towards achieving success.

Our practice areas include a wide variety of corporate legal services, including but not limited to project finance, real estate, corporate governance, foreign investment, dispute resolution, brokerage, manufacturing & distribution and consultancy services.

We will help you in any area of law, and if we cannot help you, we will help you find someone who can.

Vision Statement

To be one of the most recognized, patronized and successful boutique law firms in the 21st century.

Mission Statement

To offer our clients a wide range of legal services. From consultancy to advocacy, we are on hand to help our clients decide what to expect and what to do next.
